COLD WEATHER CAMPING TRAINING

Purpose: To provide a train the trainer opportunity for Scout leaders and experienced youth in the unique skills necessary for successful winter camping. The intent of this course is to help Scout troops extend their camping season to all 12 months of the year. It is expected that the participants of this course will go back to their units and share the knowledge and skills learned in this course. Because of this, the course is limited to adults and experienced youth (at least 14 years old & approved by their home Troop Scoutmaster).

Program: Activities include: First Aid, Cooking/Nutrition, Planning, Shelters, Winter Travel, Dressing for the Cold, Sleeping Systems, Winter Games/Activities, Nature, and Teaching Methods --- among other interesting topics.

Cost:
$60 Per Participant before Nov 1, 2010
$70 Per Participant after Nov 1, 2010
--The number of participants allowed is limited, and the course may fill early. Once filled, you will be placed on a waiting list.

Registration: Send registration form and registration fees to:

TFC Okpik,
415 N. 2nd Street
St. Charles, IL 60174

by November 1st, 2010.

Don't wait! Register early to reserve your slot.
